Subject Arrival in Shanghai of Zung Dao Kwei (陳道桂) and Zung Dao Tsing (陳道進), Chinese deportees from Japan.

Made by [illegible] Forwarded by J B Ross

According to information received by the local Japanese Consular Police from the Iwate Police (Northern Japan), the undermentioned two Chinese were deported from Japan as undesirable characters by the s.s. "Aso Maru" which arrived in Shanghai on December 29, 1934.

(1) Zung Dao Kwei, 47, cloth pedlar by occupation, native of Fokien, residing in Kozukata Cho, Morioka, arrived in Japan in May, 1922. During his stay in Asahigawa, Hokkaido, in March, 1933, he received a quantity of blue serge, stolen by a Chinese named Zung Chun Chu (陳君拳), residing in Sapporo, and disposed of the same article in May, 1933, to Zung Tsin Ching (陳親鏡), Chinese, and T. Fujita, Japanese, both living in Morioka. During the period from 1926 to 1933, he procured on behalf of Too Tuh Yuan (杜德源), No. 5, 2 Chome, Ichijo Dori, Asahigawa, on more than 50 occasions a large quantity of opium from Foh Zung (福順), a Chinese firm, in Kyoto.

(2) Zung Dao Tsing, 35, cloth pedlar, native of Fokien, residing in Kozukata Cho, Morioka, was sentenced to a fine of Yen 10 for gambling by the Morioka Court in 1927. Between June, 1929 and December, 1930 he obtained on credit piece-goods to the amount of Yen 181.87 from the Akazawa Drapery Store, in Morioka, and Yen 400 worth of piece-goods from Teikichi Ohta, Japanese, in Kyoto. In January, 1931 he absconded to China and revisited Japan in November, 1934. Payment of these accounts has not yet been made.

Their destination in Shanghai is given to the shipping company as c/o Foh Sing Co. (福新公司), No. 31 Dong Tsung Li (同春里), Kungping Road. This firm is, in fact, a boarding house used by Fokienese who are proceeding to and returning from
